Are you aware of recent changes in the medical malpractice insurance market that may impact your asset protection and wealth management plan? Are you confident that your asset protection plan is adequately addressing your goals, risks and challenges?

You are invited to attend an informative seminar and learn about new strategies for protecting wealth in today's market.

We have engaged guest speakers and subject matter experts to help further your education on how to reduce your NYS Medical Malpractice Insurance costs and protect and grow your family's wealth.

By attending this seminar you will learn about the critical elements you need to have "buttoned down" and the strategies you may want to consider to help you reduce medical malpractice insurance expenses and protect, preserve, and grow wealth.
