Ayman H. Soliman is an Executive Partner at Abrams Fensterman, LLP and Director of the firm's Physician Practices group.

Mr. Soliman focuses his practice on health care transactional, compliance, and regulatory matters. He represents a variety of health care providers including Hospitals and Health Systems, Ambulatory Surgery Centers, Article 28 Diagnostic and Treatment Facilities, IPAs, Durable Medical Equipment providers, Management Service Organizations, Imaging Facilities, medical groups, and physicians.

Mr. Soliman provides counsel and advice on an array of corporate and regulatory issues that affect health care practitioners such as mergers, acquisitions and joint ventures between health care providers, including the formation of "Supergroups"; negotiating and drafting various transactional contracts related to professional and management services, employment and independent contractor services, equipment and space leases, marketing and sales arrangements, laboratory services, and software licensing and service agreements. Also, Mr. Soliman assists business persons involved in the health care field in the area of managing health care facilities or practices.

In addition, Mr. Soliman prepares legal analyses and offers counsel on matters involving anti-kickback laws, physician self-referral laws “Stark Laws”, the False Claims Act and state insurance fraud laws. Furthermore, he advises clients on self-disclosure protocols and voluntary refunds and provides representation in civil and criminal government investigations and whistleblower (qui tam) actions. Mr. Soliman has successfully negotiated several matters with the Office of Inspector General and the Office of Medicaid Inspector General.

Additionally, Mr. Soliman advises clients on HIPAA Privacy and Security standards and assists clients in conducting HIPAA risk assessments. He develops compliance policy and employee training programs, provides representation in compliance investigations and government audits, and counsels on privacy breaches and remediation.

Furthermore, Mr. Soliman advises on Medicare and Medicaid enrollment, private network and managed care contracting and out-of-network provider billing. He counsels on reimbursement and overpayments, and provides representation in CMS, Medicaid, and private payor audits.

Mr. Soliman frequently lectures on various healthcare issues before hospitals, medical groups, and medical associations advising residents on employment agreements, post residency as well as lecturing on risk management and compliance.

Mr. Soliman has been designated a Super Lawyer in New York Health Care Law in 2016 and 2017. He received the Top Attorneys of North America award in 2016 and Top Attorneys in the Metro New York area in 2017. In addition, Mr. Soliman is the recipient of the award of Lawyers of Distinction for 2018 for “Recognizing Excellence in Health Care Law.” He was featured in Long Island Business News in 2014 and 2018 and was recognized in “2018 New York’s Leaders in the Law.” In 2026, Mr. Soliman was named a Long Island Business News Leaders in Law honoree, recognizing his leadership and accomplishments in the legal profession. Mr. Soliman has been selected as a New York Metro Super Lawyer in the area of Health Care Law for 2025 and 2026.

For five years, Mr. Soliman served as the Administrator of an Article 28, Ambulatory Surgery Center in the New York area.

He received his J.D. degree from New York Law School and a Bachelor of Arts, from the State University of New York at Stony Brook. Mr. Soliman is admitted to practice in the State of New York.

He is a member of the American Health Lawyers Association, American Bar Association, New York State Bar Association and American College of Healthcare Executives.
