Keith J. Singer is a Partner at Abrams Fensterman, LLP.

Mr. Singer is one of the firm's senior litigators. He is involved in all facets of the litigation practice, including complex commercial and corporate litigation, general civil litigation, business torts, employment and labor disputes, collection matters and matters before the New York State Liquor Authority. Mr. Singer also has extensive experience with matters under the Transportation Law, Business Corporation Law, and Lien Law of the State of New York.

With over thirty years of litigation experience, Mr. Singer's unique and substantial background enables him to successfully manage all aspects of the most complex of litigation matters from inception through discovery, motion practice and trial. His extensive experience also includes briefing and successfully arguing numerous appeals before the Appellate Divisions of the First and Second Judicial Departments of the State of New York.

Mr. Singer has been designated as a New York Super Lawyer since 2018, a distinction earned by only 5% of the lawyers in the NY metro area, and was recognized in 2016 as a Top Attorney in North America by The Who's Who Directories.

Mr. Singer received his J.D. from Hofstra University School of Law, where he was an Editor of the Labor Law Journal. He is admitted to practice in the States of New York and New Jersey, as well as the United States District Courts for the Eastern and Southern Districts of New York, and the District of New Jersey.
