Amanda Rieben

Partner

Abrams Fensterman is proud to sponsor the Women’s Bar Association of the State of New York \(“WBASNY”\) presentation of the Betty Weinberg Ellerin Mentor Award honoring Hon. Kim P. Berg, taking place on March 26, 2026, at The Mansion at White Plains.

The firm’s sponsorship reflects its continued commitment to supporting organizations that foster professional excellence, mentorship, and advancement within the legal profession—particularly among women leaders in New York.

Abrams Fensterman is especially proud to support this event alongside White Plains Partner, Amanda Rieben, who is actively involved in planning and organizing the program. Amanda currently serves as a WBASNY Vice President and has held several other leadership positions within her local Westchester chapter. Her ongoing leadership continues to strengthen the firm’s presence within one of the region’s most important legal networks.

The firm congratulates Hon. Kim P. Berg on this well-deserved recognition and looks forward to an exceptional evening celebrating mentorship, leadership, and professional achievement.

Amanda Rieben, Esq., is a Partner in Abrams Fensterman’s White Plains office and is a recognized leader in New York family law. She is a Past President of the Westchester Women’s Bar Association, and a current Vice President of WBASNY. Amanda has been named a Super Lawyers Rising Star and 2025 Super Lawyer—honors awarded to only a select percentage of attorneys statewide.
