White Plains, NY, November 10, 2022 — Abrams Fensterman, LLP today announced that Al Pirro, Jr. has re-entered the field of law and joined the firm as a Partner and member of its land and zoning practice group in its White Plains office. Mr. Pirro has 45 years of experience as a land use and zoning attorney in private practice.

"It's an incredibly exciting time to join Abrams Fensterman. I look forward to working alongside a seasoned and experienced team of professionals as, together, we serve and grow the firm's client base."

— Al Pirro, Jr.

Mr. Pirro joins Abrams Fensterman, LLP as a result focused, commercial, transactional land use and zoning attorney. He has represented clients throughout the Hudson Valley where his considerable land use experience has resulted in large scale projects such as The Westchester in White Plains, the Centre at Purchase in Purchase, The Summit in Mount Pleasant, and a myriad of residential and specialty land use approvals.

"Al has already demonstrated the drive, talent, and passionate commitment to client service that distinguishes our firm," said Howard Fensterman, Managing Partner at Abrams Fensterman, LLP. "His insight and experience will allow us to further expand our ability to meet our clients' needs."

Mr. Pirro's appointment brings Abrams Fensterman, LLP's land use and zoning group to a team of nine.

Mr. Pirro is admitted to practice in the State of New York and the U.S. Southern District of New York. He has been in service as a registered lobbyist in both New York State and Washington, D.C. where, among other clients, he served the Greater New York Hospital Association and its 300 affiliated hospitals.

"Al brings an enormous wealth of experience to our team," said Robert Spolzino, Executive Partner at Abrams Fensterman, LLP. "We look forward to his strong business acumen and legal knowledge to help drive our continued growth and staff development."
