

Amanda Rieben Elected Treasurer of WBASNY

FEATURED ATTORNEY

Amanda Rieben

Partner

Abrams Fensterman, LLP is proud to announce that Amanda Rieben, Partner in the firm’s Family & Matrimonial Law Practice based in White Plains, has been elected to serve as Treasurer of the Women’s Bar Association of the State of New York (“WBASNY”) for the upcoming term.

Her appointment will be formally recognized during the WBASNY Convention 2026, taking place May 28–31 in Rochester, New York.

WBASNY is one of New York State’s leading legal organizations dedicated to advancing women in the legal profession and strengthening the administration of justice statewide. Ms. Rieben’s election reflects years of distinguished leadership and service to both WBASNY and the Westchester legal community.

A highly regarded matrimonial and family law attorney, Ms. Rieben represents clients in divorce, custody, support, family offense proceedings, post-judgment litigation, and marital agreements. Prior to joining Abrams Fensterman, she served as Director of the Walk-In Legal Clinic at the Pace Women’s Justice Center.

Ms. Rieben currently serves as WBASNY Vice President and is a Past President of the Westchester Women’s Bar Association, having also held numerous leadership positions throughout both organizations.

“WBASNY has been an incredibly meaningful part of my professional journey. I’m honored by the opportunity to serve in this role and look forward to continuing to support an organization dedicated to leadership, mentorship, and advancing women in the legal profession.”
