
Governor Paterson Appoints Managing Partner of Abrams Fensterman to N.Y.S. Public Health and Health Planning Council

FEATURED ATTORNEY

Howard Fensterman

Managing Partner

ALBANY, NY — The law firm of Abrams Fensterman, LLP announces that its Managing Partner, Howard Fensterman, has been appointed to the newly formed Public Health and Health Planning Council (PHHPC) by New York State Governor David A. Paterson. The Public Health Council (PHC) and the State Hospital Review and Planning Council (SHRPC) were consolidated into the Public Health and Health Planning Council (PHHPC) on December 1, 2010.

An active philanthropist, Mr. Fensterman is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of America (Long Island Chapter) and will be its honoree as "Man of the Year" at the charity's upcoming Annual Gala Fundraiser. He is also a member of the Board of Directors of Chabad of Port Washington, NY.

Mr. Fensterman is involved in all facets of the Abrams Fensterman law practice. Mr. Fensterman founded the firm in 2000 by bringing together a team of top attorneys with decades of experience in specific areas of law. With offices in Lake Success, New York City, and Rochester, the firm has grown significantly over the years into a full-service law firm which now provides sophisticated legal representation across a broad range of practice areas. One of the areas in which the firm has built its excellent reputation is as the "go-to" law firm for the healthcare industry. The firm represents thousands of healthcare providers, including hospitals, nursing homes, and medical providers.