About Cause Célèbre

Created 6 years ago by Food For Thought's Founding Artistic Director Susan Charlotte, an award-winning writer whose plays and films have enjoyed productions and screenings throughout the country. Cause Célèbre is devoted to fostering an enhanced understanding of psychological, physical and social issues by presenting plays related to a particular cause, performed by our finest actors. They have produced nine successful shows Off Broadway and numerous Galas. Cause Célèbre's mission is threefold: to connect theatre with different causes, to provide visibility for different causes and to educate the public.

About Louise Lasser

Louise Lasser became a household name when she starred in the hit series, "Mary Hartman, Mary Hartman." And who could forget the wife of Woody Allen when she shared the screen with her husband in "Bananas," "Take The Money And Run" and "Everything You Ever Wanted To Know About Sex." And of course she had a recurring role on the other hit TV series, "Taxi" and can now be seen in the series "Girls."
