ABRAMS FENSTERMAN

Abrams, Fensterman, Fensterman, Eisman, Formato, Ferrara, Wolf & Carone

Attorneys at Law

Abrams, Fensterman, Fensterman, Eisman, Formato, Ferrara, Wolf & Carone, LLP, a full-service law firm with offices in New York City, Long Island, Brooklyn, Manhattan, White Plains and Rochester, is pleased to announce that Raju Sundaran has joined the firm and will be a member of the firm's Trusts and Estates and Guardianship Law practice groups.

Prior to joining Abrams Fensterman, Mr. Sundaran was Senior Counsel for the New York City Law Department. He successfully defended law enforcement officers and the City of New York in complex Section 1983 civil rights cases. He effectively briefed numerous motions resulting in the dismissal of plaintiff's claims against defendant police officers. City of New York that could have exposed the officers and the City to multi-million-dollar judgments in favor of the officers. He successfully defended and won numerous federal jury trials with the potential for substantial exposure to a high award stemming from a myriad of allegations, including but not limited to, false arrest, malicious prosecution, excessive force, denial of right to a fair trial, deadly force/police-involved shootings, and municipal liability.

In that role, he recently oversaw and managed compliance, risk audits, and monitoring of NYPD Stop-Question-Frisk practices. He successfully defended the court ordered federal monitorship in SDNY, as well as defended high profile federal civil rights cases in SDNY, including mass arrests and criminal prosecutions during the 2004 Republican Nation Convention, including a certified class action.
