Partner David Imamura Recognized During AAPI Heritage Celebration

Abrams Fensterman, LLP is proud to congratulate David Imamura, Partner in the firm's White Plains office and Director of the firm's Voting Rights & Election Law practice, on being honored by the 9th Judicial District Equal Justice in the Courts Committee's program, "The Power of Unity: Honoring Asian American Pacific Islander Heritage."

Mr. Imamura was recognized for his distinguished public service and contributions to the legal profession. A highly respected election and voting rights attorney, Mr. Imamura has emerged as one of New York's leading voices in election law. He serves as a Westchester County Legislator and previously chaired New York State's Independent Redistricting Commission, helping oversee the initial drafting of Congressional and State Legislative district maps following the 2020 Census.

At Abrams Fensterman, Mr. Imamura leads groundbreaking voting rights litigation throughout New York State. His recent successes include landmark Voting Rights Act settlements in Mount Pleasant and Newburgh that have been recognized as among the most significant early victories under New York's Voting Rights Act, reshaping local election systems to provide more equitable representation for minority communities.
