

Howard Fensterman Named to City & State's 2024 Long Island Power 100 List

FEATURED ATTORNEY

Howard Fensterman

Managing Partner

Abrams Fensterman is proud to announce that Managing Partner and Co-Founder, Howard Fensterman, has been named to City & State New York's prestigious Long Island Power 100 list for 2024. This recognition honors the most influential leaders across Long Island, highlighting those whose work has had a significant impact on the region.

Howard Fensterman, an accomplished litigator and successful businessman, has been instrumental in shaping the growth and success of Abrams Fensterman. Since co-founding the firm in 2000 with just 13 attorneys, his leadership has driven the firm's expansion to over 115 attorneys and 240 employees across five offices in New York State. Under his guidance, Abrams Fensterman has become one of Long Island's largest full-service law firms and the largest firm in Brooklyn's history.

This recognition by City & State marks Mr. Fensterman's inclusion on the Long Island Power 100 list since 2019, underscoring his continued commitment to the Long Island community and his influence across both the legal and business sectors. In addition to this honor, Mr. Fensterman has been recognized by Long Island Business News, Schneps Media, and City & State's Law Power 100 List in recent years, solidifying his legacy as a leader in law and public service.

View the full Long Island Power 100 list here.