New York State Bar Association – Elder Law and Special Needs Section 2018 Fall Meeting

Start Date: Thursday, October 04, 2018

End Date: Friday, October 05, 2018

This one and a half day program tackles complex policy and practice issues facing today's Elder Law and Special Needs Attorneys across New York State. Sessions offer a broad perspective on national socioeconomic trends in health care delivery, technology, housing, taxation, and wealth transfer – and a forum to develop adaptive practices to address these changes. The overarching theme of this conference is designed to promote forward thinking and opportunities to evaluate the practice of law in the broader context of our changing society.

11.0 MCLE Credits including 8.0 in professional Practice, 1.0 in Ethics, 1.0 in Skills and 1.0 in Diversity, Inclusion and Elimination of Bias for both all attorneys. Please note: Newly admitted attorneys are not eligible to receive Diversity credits.
