
Glorious Grandparents in Government – Jeffrey A. Lebowitz Recognized

FEATURED ATTORNEY

Jeffrey D. Lebowitz
Of Counsel

Retired Justice Jeffrey D. Lebowitz was featured in City & State New York's "Glorious Grandparents in Government".

In the feature, Judge Lebowitz reflects on the parallels between being a Grandpa to his 17-month-old grandson, Aaron Moses, and his former responsibilities as a Judge. With the wisdom of experience, he expresses a more forgiving approach to this second chance at parenting. His favorite moments range from sharing sports to dreams of a future for his grandson outside of the courtroom, even joking about a potential future Mets pitcher in the family.

Judge Lebowitz, Of Counsel at Abrams Fensterman, LLP, brings a wealth of experience in matrimonial and family law, commercial litigation, and alternative dispute resolution (ADR). Leveraging his tenure as a Supreme Court Justice, he offers clients a unique perspective, blending his principles with his deep understanding of the law.

To learn more about Lebowitz's and to see the complete list of amazing Grandparents honored in City & State New York's "Glorious Grandparents in Government," click here.