Howard Fensterman

Managing Partner

In an op-ed for the Long Island Press, Howard Fensterman, Founding Partner at Abrams Fensterman law firm, addresses the necessity of political civility in our current times. Fensterman states, “There is a time for politics and there is a time for government,” a powerful reminder that amidst our political differences, effective governance must prevail for the betterment of society.

He further elaborates, “In the face of communal challenges, we must put aside our political labels and work collaboratively towards common goals.” This statement encapsulates his vision for a united approach in politics, where bipartisanship is not just a concept, but a practiced reality, especially in times of crisis and decision-making.
