As a proud Roslyn resident and Partner at Abrams Fensterman, LLP, Jeffrey Neuman is dedicated to providing his neighbors with expert legal guidance across all areas of trusts and estates, guardianships and elder law planning and litigation.

With a career rooted in protecting individuals, families and their legacies, Jeffrey has earned a stellar reputation as a strategic, trusted and zealous advocate, ensuring his clients receive the care and security they deserve.

A Leader in Elder Law & Estate Planning

With more than a decade of experience, Jeffrey is a cornerstone of Abrams Fensterman's award-winning Elder Law and Estate Planning Practice. Jeffrey's unique combination of experience, gained from representing both individuals and long-term care providers, gives him a distinct and invaluable perspective when counseling and advocating for his clients.

Whether it is navigating Medicaid eligibility, preparing various trusts (revocable, irrevocable, supplemental needs), drafting wills, probate avoidance, wealth preservation, or estate administration, Jeffrey offers comprehensive advice and solutions. Jeffrey's strategic guidance delivers peace of mind to families throughout Long Island.

Navigating Complex Legal Matters with Compassion

Jeffrey's vast expertise is showcased in the courtroom, where he adeptly navigates complex legal challenges, including contested estate litigation, guardianship proceedings and civil matters. His ability to tackle intricate legal issues makes him an indispensable resource for Roslyn residents seeking to protect their rights, assets and inheritance for future generations.

It's Personal

What truly sets Jeffrey apart is his personalized approach — he takes the time to understand the unique concerns of Roslyn families and is committed to providing tailored solutions that prioritize their needs.

His clients appreciate not just his experience but also his unwavering dedication to their cause, creative problem solving, meticulous attention to detail, clear communication and ability to make complex legal matters easy to understand and navigate.

Jeffrey's legal acumen has earned him recognition as a New York Super Lawyers "Rising Star" since 2018, an honor given to just 2.5% of attorneys in the state. He is also deeply involved with the New York State Bar Association, serving as Co-Chair of the Health Law Committee within the Elder Law and Special Needs Section.

A Roslyn Neighbor, Here to Help

As a Roslyn resident, Jeffrey is passionate about serving and engaging with his community. He, along with his wife Lana and their three children — Elliya, Asher and Aviana — love the neighborhood they call home.

Jeffrey volunteers on the board of Roslyn Little League, while he and his family stay active at the local sports fields, dance studios and the Sid Jacobson JCC, embodying their commitment to fostering a strong, connected community.

Jeffrey knows the importance of planning for the future and protecting the people and assets that matter most. If you or a loved one have questions about elder law, estate planning, or guardianship, Jeffrey Neuman and the team at Abrams Fensterman are here to help.
