Making the decision to divorce is just the beginning of a transformative journey. While this process can feel overwhelming, moving on is an opportunity to rebuild your life, redefine your goals, and secure a future that works for you.

Dina De Giorgio is a Partner in the Family Law Practice of Abrams Fensterman, LLP. With over 30 years of experience helping clients through some of the most challenging times of their lives, Dina offers a comprehensive and compassionate approach to divorce.

1 – Finding New Places to Live

Divorce often comes with decisions about housing. Should you keep the marital residence, sell it, or relocate? Each option involves complex legal, financial, and emotional factors.

Key Services Dina Provides:

- Legal advice on property division and marital asset valuation.
- Guidance on relocation, including legal requirements and considerations.
- Connecting you with trusted real estate agents, mortgage brokers, and organizers to ease the transition.

2 – Building New Relationships

As you navigate this new chapter, you may feel uncertain about starting fresh socially or romantically. When is the right time to date again? How do you rebuild your support network?

Dina's Approach:

- Encourages self-discovery and emotional well-being before entering new relationships.
- Offers recommendations for dating coaches, personal trainers, life coaches, and networking groups to help you regain confidence.

3 – Finding a New Career

Re-entering the workforce or advancing your career is an essential step for financial independence after divorce.

Key Services Dina Provides:

- Crafting settlement agreements that account for child care expenses, enabling you to pursue work or education.
- Collaborating with career coaches and resume specialists to help you secure opportunities aligned with your goals.
- Advising on child care negotiation to ensure financial security.

4 – Making Your Money Work for You

Managing finances post-divorce requires careful planning. From budgeting to tax implications, financial security is key to a stable future.

Dina's Financial Services Include:

- Partnering with Certified Divorce Financial Analysts (CDFA), insurance brokers, and financial planners.
- Helping you navigate the tax consequences of your divorce settlement.
- Providing insights on budgeting and planning for future expenses.

5 – Planning for the Future

Divorce is a time to rethink your estate and retirement plans to reflect your new circumstances.

Dina's Guidance Covers:

- Revising your will, power of attorney, and healthcare proxies.

- Planning for your children's inheritance with safeguards to ensure the funds are managed according to your wishes.
- Securing long-term care and life insurance.

Let Dina help you build a brighter future—one step at a time.
