Employment Litigation

Sometimes, despite the best intentions, lawsuits cannot be avoided. When businesses make the hard decisions to terminate an under-performing worker, or discipline an employee for misconduct, litigation is often the result.

Our team of seasoned attorneys have centuries of litigation experience amongst them that spans all levels of the State and Federal judicial system, including the United States Supreme Court. Our expertise are equally wide-ranging and include wins in accommodation/ADA cases, pregnancy discrimination and sexual harassment, wage and hour lawsuits, and employee confidentiality and trade secret violations.

While all situations are different, and one result does not mean that the same will be achieved again, what we can guarantee is that our attorneys will give you the same knowledgeable, focused, and practical representation that our clients have come to expect from our firm.
