

Health Care Collection & Reimbursement Recovery

Health Care Collection & Reimbursement Recovery Attorneys

Abrams Fensterman, LLP's team of health care collection and reimbursement recovery attorneys focuses on assisting clients in reducing their receivables. Our attorneys regularly pursue all available sources of third-party coverage for health care reimbursement, and we use administrative and judicial remedies such as Medicare, Medicaid, managed care appeals, private collection actions, guardianships, and estate proceedings.

Abrams Fensterman, LLP is uniquely qualified to help health care providers secure payment. We have successfully collected millions of dollars on behalf of our clients.* Attorneys in our health care collection and reimbursement recovery practice group help health care providers secure publicly funded medical assistance (Medicaid) by intervening with family members and negotiating and litigating coverage disputes with the government's attorneys. In addition to working on collections matters, our reimbursement recovery attorneys counsel clients on related issues, such as involuntary discharges for non-payment, bed holds, guarantees of payment, and personal needs accounts.
