

Shrinking Workforce, Expanding Regulation: New Employer Challenges and Strategies

All Employers, regardless of size or industry, are facing a shifting workforce landscape. Worker protections and workplace regulations are increasing faster than most-sized businesses can keep up. At the same time, just finding workers to fill positions has become difficult, if not impossible, for many businesses.

Our panel will give an overview of new and upcoming laws and regulations, and discuss the forces affecting our labor shortages and how we can address them with strategies and solutions that our Employer panelists are proving successful.

Join Our Webinar

March 8
9am-10:30am

Zoom link provided upon registration | Click here to register

Panelists:

Andrew Rigie

Executive Director of the New York City Hospitality Alliance – An association representing restaurants and nightlife venues throughout the five boroughs

Walter Ocheo

President / Owner President / Owner
Right at Home/ Home care services

Rachel Demarest Gold

Abrams Fensterman LLP
Seasoned executive with subject matter expertise in Labor and Employment Law

Annie Garneva

Vice President, Policy and Special Initiatives
NYC Employment and Training Coalition (NYCETC)

This panel discussion brings together legal advice, labor market data, employer narratives, and examples from our community small business strategies from the field to help.

Moderator:

Evelyn Ortiz

Deputy Director
New York Association of Training and Employment Professionals (NYATEP)